

The elimination of unsolicited (implied or direct) has been a godsend in our home. I would be most dis-satisfied and angered by a return of these solicitations by people I do business with or otherwise. I urge you to leave the current law intact and keep ALL solicitors from invading my home via the telephone. Thank you. Joe Vandewalle